THE DAILY BULLETIN.

Published every afternoon and delivered in this city, the suburbs and Aberdeen by our carriers, at 6 CENTS a week.

It is welcomed in the households of men of both political parties, for the reason that it is more of a newspaper than a political journal.

Its wide circulation therefore makes it a valuable vehicle for business announcements, which we respectfully invite to our columns.

"TREADWATER JIM."

"Who's dat? W'y dat's Treadwater Jim—
He wns! Little nigger in town—Wh't de fokes all sez, dey'll hang him.
'Kase why, hit don't seem he kin drown!
He keeps hisself dere in the wash
'Bound hat of his time in de year.
An' he's got any home 'round hyar
Hits out on de end ob dat pier!"

"Well, de name what he's got—it was gin him
By fokes what was kno' in de facts;
For day see dat sum title was due him
'Kase he'd done wun de nobles' of aeks!
Ob koarse I kin tell ye destory,
'Kase I was rite dar on de spot,
An' Jim is entitul' to glory
He furly earn all dat he got!"

"Yer see, hit was out on de wash, dar, Wun sunshiny mawnin in May,
Dat de chile up him de Nawf, Sir,
Wuz tooken out dar ter ter play;
An' Jim wuz out dar wid his fish-line,
An' de nuss warn't a-watchin de chile,
So hit wuk'd off rite inter de brine
At dat dornder dar by de big pile."

"Well, den dar wuz skreamin' and cryin'
Fun all de folks 'round on de pier,
But Jim seed hit warn't no nse tryin'
Ter reskew de chile fun up heah—
So he buck er long dive fer de watah
An' struck whar de chile hed gone down,
An' hit took him so long fer ter fine it
De people thot bote 'em would drown."

"But punty soon out in de stream dar
Er kinky black hed cum in site,
An' he'll close ter his bres' wif bole han's, Sir,
Wuz de baby all limp' an' white!
Den de mous ob de people wuz open'd
In er long an' euk iridgin' shoot!
"Cum on wid de bote, men!" Jim holler'd—
"I'll tread watah ontell yer git out!"

"Den dey bent ter deres' like Marters,
An' flew ter whar Jim, wid de chile,
Wuz doin' his bes' ter keep floatin'
But weakund' hit hek all de while Dey brought de two heah ter de landin',
An' de murther wuz crazy wid it,
While de father jiss tetel'd fer dat darky,
An' hugged him ez do' his own boy!"

"So, yer see dat's de reezin' day gib him
De naine dat yer heerd me Jess call—An' nobody bodders a' ing wid Jim,
An' he does ez he pleezes wid all!
So koarse, what ne done wuz rite brave, salh,
An' metbe wuz wurlhy er crown—
But Jim—well, Jim's jess de blamedes'
No count little nigger in town!"—

ANOTHER OUTLAW SHOT.

Wood Hite, a Fugitive From Missouri, Killed in Kansas.

Under date of April 9th comes the following from Kansas City:

Wood Hite, another of the Missouri train robbers, was shot and killed near Richmond, Kansas, last Thursday on the same day that Jesse James was buried in Nebraska. The murderer of Hite is not known, but the outlaw is believed to have been killed by Al. Ford or Dick Little, both of whom had sworn to take his life
whenever an opportunity was presented.
Wood Hite was a member of the James gang. He participated in the daring and famous train robberies at Glendale and Winston, and is the brother of Clarence Hite, who was tried here only three weeks ago, and sentenced to twenty-five years in the Missouri penitentiary. The body of Hite was found in a swamp near Richmond by a farmer who went to draw water. The dead man had been dressed in the common, rough clothes of a stock drover, wore high top boots, a slouch hat and bushy black beard which at first concealed the bullet holes in his head. The water where the body was found is near the Ford farm, and as Wood Hite is believed to have had no companion and was almost a stranger in the place, it is presumed that he met some one on the farm who knew him and the murder ensued. There were no evidences of a struggle in Hite's appearance.
The shot, which entered the head above the ear and passed out at the other side of the head, must have been fired as unexpectedly and brought as speedy a death as the ball that killed Jesse James. The inquest has been held and the jury, which was at first unable to identify the dead, found that he came to his death at the hands of some one unknown. Al. Ford identified the body. No one knew anything about the shooting. It is not unlikely that both Little and Ford will be arrested for the murder.

Evil would not be half so dangerous if it did not often wear the semblance of virtue.

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

THURSDAY EVE., APRIL 20, 1882.

TERMS:—The EVENING BULLETIN is published daily, and served free of postage at 6 cents per week; 25 cents per month; 75 cents per three months; $1.50 per six months, and $3 per year, payable in advance.

THE EVENING BULLETIN HAS A LARGER CIRCULATION IN THIS CITY, CHESTER AND ABERDEEN, OHIO, THAN ANY OTHER PAPER PUBLISHED IN MAYSVILLE.

There is no abatement of the small-pox at Cincinnati.

ALMOST all the lawyers in Kentucky are candidates for Superior Judge.

THE Massachusetts House has defeated the bill allowing women to vote for Presidential electors.

It is generally conceded that Congress will take no action on the tobacco tax during this session.

CLIFTON R. BRECKINRIDGE, second son of the late General John C. Breckinridge is a candidate for congress in Arkansas.

THE liquor dealers in various parts of Ohio are organizing to resist the action of the Pond bill, lately passed by the Legislature.

THE Senate Committee on Foreign Relations has agreed to recommend the passage of the Chinese Bill to restrict Chinese immigration with a number of amendments.

THE number of gallons of distilled spirits not made of fruit produce in the United States since 1863, is upwards of 1,000,000,000, and total amount of tax collected from all distilled spirits since that year is nearly $835,000,000.

IN the Legislature this week, the Liberty of Conscience bill was laid on the table. An abatement of $15,000 was made in the amount due the state from the lessees of the penitentiary and $32,500 was appropriated for the benefit of the Central Lunatic Asylum.

COVINGTON Commonwealth: The new congressional apportionment in Ohio gives the Democrats the Fourth, Fifth, Tenth, Thirteenth and Seventeenth districts. In addition, the Democrats say they can carry the two Cincinnati districts, (First and Second) and the Third and Sixth, while they have a fair chance for the Ninth and Fifteenth.

THERE were 1,069, May Festival seats disposed of at Cincinnati, at the auction sales which closed Tuesday evening. The aggregate amount realized was $16,332.35. Two years ago there were 1,972 seats sold at auction, for which $25,810.23 was received. Four years ago the auction sales for the May Festival amounted to $28,099.50 there having been 2,242 seats purchased.

PRESIDENT AGRICULTURE has sent a message to congress recommending an appropriation of $2,000,000 for the restoring of the Mississippi river levees, double the amount heretofore recommended for that purpose by the Mississippi Commission; also, a message relative to the proposed International Peace Congress, in which he refers to congress the propriety of calling such an assembly.

THE April report of the Department of Agriculture shows an increase of 2 per cent. or nearly $500,600 acres, in the acreage of winter wheat. The condition of winter wheat is high throughout the west (Ohio alone reporting below 100,) in the cotton States, and in Delaware, Maryland and Virginia. In New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Ohio, the condition is from 3 to 13 per cent. below the average. In Pennsylvania it is 4 per cent. below.

The veteran Captain Jno. W. Cannon, of the famed lower coast packet, Robt. E. Lee, died at his home in Frankfort, Ky., yesterday afternoon. He had been an invalid for years. He was a noted old-time commander, and made the famous race with the Lee against Captain Thos. P. Leathers' fast Natchez, from New Orleans to St. Louis, a few years ago. He owned and built several of the finest and fastest steamers plying the Southern waters.

Arctic Steamer Lost.

NEW YORK, April 18.—The following is by special cable to the Herald:

IRKUTSK, SIBERIA, April 18th, 1882.—I have this morning received startling news from Mr. Jackson, the special commissioner who was sent in search of the Jeanette survivors. He apparently forwarded the dispatch by courier. It ran as follows:

FROM THE BANKS OF THE ALDEN RIVER, April 6th, 1882.—I have just met a courier bearing dispatches from W. H. Gilder, Herald correspondent with the Rodgers, whom the courier had accompanied from Kolymsk, on the Kolyma River, to Verkhoyansk, four hundred miles north of Yakutsk. Gilder has made the journey of two thousand versts among the Chuckches. He was sent forward with the news the Rodgers had been burned and sunk; that Lieutenant Berry, with the officers and crew, thirty-six in number, are at Tiapka, near Cape Serdze; that a vessel should be sent for them as early as possible.

PILES! PILES! PILES!

A Sure Cure Found at Last—No One Need Suffer!

A sure cure for blind, bleeding, itching and ulcerated piles has been discovered by Dr. William, (an Indian remedy,) called Dr. Williams' Indian Ointment. A single box has cured the worst chronic cases of twenty-five or thirty years standing. No one need suffer five minutes after applying this wonderful sooth-ing medicine. Lotions, instruments and elec-turles do more harm than good. Williams' Ointment absorbs the tumors, allays the intense itching, (particularly at night after get-ting warm in bed,) acts as a poultice, gives instant and painless relief, and is prepared only for piles, itching of the private parts, and nothing else.

Read what the Hon. J. M. Coffinberry, of Cleveland, says about Dr. William's Pile Ointment: I have used scores of pile cures, and it affords me pleasure to say that I have never found anything which gave me such immediate and permanent relief as Dr. Williams' Indian Ointment.

Skin Diseases Cured

BY DR. FRAZIER'S MAGIC OINTMENT. Cures as if by magic, pimples, black head or grubs, blotches and eruptions on the face, leaving the skin clear, healthy and beautiful. Also cures itch, barber's itch, salt rheum, tetter, ringworm, scald head, chapped hands, sore nipples, sore lips, old obstinate ulcers and sores, &c.

SKIN DISEASE.

F. Drake, Esq., Cleveland, O., suffered beyond all description from a skin disease which appeared on his hands, head and face, and nearly destroyed his eyes. The most careful doctoring failed to help him, and after all had failed he used Dr. Frazier's Magic Ointment and was cured by a few applications.

The first and positive cure for skin diseases ever discovered.

Dr. Frazier's Root Bitters.

Frazier's Root Bitters are not a dram-shop whisky beverage, but are strictly medicinal in every sense. They act strongly upon the liver and kidneys, keep the bowels open and regular, make the weak strong, heal the lungs, build up the nerves and cleanse the blood and system of every impurity.

For dizziness, rush of blood to the head tending to apoplexy, dyspepsia, fever and ague, dropsy, pimples and blotches, scrotulous humors and sores, tetter, ring worm, white swelling, erysipelas, sore eyes and for young men suffering from weakness or debility caused from imprudence, and to females in delicate health, Frazier's Root Bitters are especially recommended.

Dr. Frazier: I have used two bottles of your Root Bitters for dyspepsia, dizziness, weakness and kidney disease, and they did me more good than the doctors and all the medicine I ever used. From the first dose I took I began to mend, and I am now in perfect health, and feel as well as I ever did. I consider your medicine one of the greatest blessings.

Ventilated Egg Case.

Patented February 15, 1881.

Indispensable to Merchants Shippers And Producers.

THE CHEAPEST AND THE BEST. The outside frame of this carrier contains five trays, held in place by fasteners at end of case, as seen in cut. These Trays are constructed in reversible halves. The above cut shows one whole tray filled ready to be placed in case, each egg resting in its cardboard socket in such a manner as to be readily counted, handled, or transferred from tray to tray; or case to case, without rehandling.

For cold storage this case will store 60 dozen with racks made to receive the half trays, hence this is the cheapest storage case manufactured, saving largely in space.

The manner of holding the eggs on end prevents oscillation, rattling, or breakage, and adds greatly to their freshness when carried long in storage. Size of 30 dozen No. 1 cases 25x12x14, weighs 20 pounds.

Only a Pastoral Kiss.
Chicago News.

"You want to know what I have to say about the card in the Morning News accusing me of kissing Mrs. Beckman, do you?" said the Rev. George Swainforth, a disciple of that lady, this morning. "Well, what I have to say about it is that, in the sense in which it was meant to be taken, it is fallacious."

"Didn't you kiss her?"

"Well, it I should say 'yes,' or say 'no,' it would be a lie."

"Well, didn't you kiss her?"

"I kissed her in the same way and sense that I would my mother or sister."

"How did it happen?"

"We were holding meetings with the Union church at Paw Paw, Ind., about two years ago. I had been requested by Mr. Beckman to give Mrs. Beckman as many drives in the open air as possible, on account of her health. One day I took her on a drive about seven miles over to Earlville, Ill., and back. We were staying at the house of the pastor, the Rev. Mr. Mann, at the time, and when we started the family all came out to the door and kissed her good-by. I did not kiss her then, but after the buggy got about thirty feet, and while it was in full sight of the family, I kissed her also. A wagon containing a family of neighbors was passing at the time, and I suppose it was they who took the trouble to spread the report."

"How many times have you kissed Mrs. Beckman?"

"What a question that is for you to ask!"

"Well, as you did it innocently, I suppose you were not ashamed of it?"

"I am not ashamed of it at all. Both Mr. Mann and I have kissed Mrs. Beckman a good many times. One old brother, named Pine, about ninety-five years of age, kissed her in sight of the whole congregation at Paw Paw one day. Why, I have kissed this brother here, and his wife, with whom I am staying, and who are listening to this interview. Why! Didn't the Elphesian elders fall on Paul's neck and kiss him?"

"Paul and the elders were all men?"

"Well, didn't the women that was a sinner kiss the feet of Jesus?"

"Yes, but Jesus didn't kiss her. Moreover she kissed his feet and not his mouth. If you believe that Mrs. Beckman is Jesus Christ, do you not think it would be less liable to make a bad impression if you should kiss her feet?"

"Well, in a sense, we do kiss her feet, too. But I think that if we should kiss her feet with our lips it might be more open to suspicious comment than kissing her mouth."

"Then, as kissing is not essential, anyhow, why do you not forego it altogether, and avoid remark?"

"Because Peter said, 'Greet one another with a kiss of charity,' and we are not going to disobey it on account of what might be said about us."
